“ The best nights at hockey was if i sat near Mike in the locker room. He could talk anything with you; Music, hockey, childhood, personal stuff...but you could tell he liked talking about his kids the most. He just lit up about them. And that guy could tell a story. Absolutely hilarious. For those who get it, i can tell you that he had the respect of anyone he played with, or against. He played hockey the way it should be played. He played hard regardless of the score, he played for his teammates, and he stood up for anyone he cared about. I think he played life like that too. I'm lucky to have been a teammate of Mike's. I wish there were more like him.

“ It is with profound sadness that I learned of Mike's passing. Mike was a person with deep compassion for all who made his acquaintance. He could make you laugh, when a laugh was needed. He was a shoulder to lean on when things were tough. I will never forget Mike's unselfishness when my son suddenly passed away. I will also never forget the quick smile and the quick wit.
Ed and all of Mike's family, Cindy and I send our warmest thoughts, prayers and love to all of you.
Ed, you and I both know, he was the "evil twin". I hope that gave you a moment to smile at this sad time.
