

Albert W Allein

August 11, 1951 - September 14, 2008

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

RO

“ No matter what you decide to perform, keep in mind the time horizon with this trade is extremely brief. You'll need to maintain a detailed attention with your situation. Get out of this buy and sell for the primary signal this recession possesses manage the training course. Worldwide Macro - this kind of design targets very long and quick jobs in both equally money and also mixture areas across the world. Linked tightly in order to world wide monetary activities, they might be picked up emerging marketplaces along with economic climates together with designed nations around the world.

rolfquocuri - April 14, 2014 at 12:00 AM

PK

“ Dear Jesse and Family,

We are very sorry. We will never forget all of the good times including the old man's costume at Halloween handing out candy, fire pit outside, basement parties, snowblowing, yatzee and cards in the kitchen, all of the good food he always made, Buffalo football and hockey games, baseball games, "scratching" lottery's (go 518) and Christmas decorations. We have some great memories we will never forget. We will miss him.

Love Paula, Kim and Jason

Paula and Kim - October 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM

MK

“ My Brother Albie... what can I say about this wonderful, Big hearted,giving and oh so funny clown of a guy ?

I was seven years old when he was born.Mom named him after her dad, albert and her funny clown of a brother as albie was mine.

She told me over the phone,from the hospital that I had a new baby brother and that I could pick out his middle name. So,I picked william. That name was for another favorite uncle of mine " uncle Bill".Some how I started calling him albie and it stuck for the rest of his life.

Albie and I grew up with an older brother Ken.Albie and ken became very close.Ken had the greatest disposition and was a little more reserved than his little brother. When ken passed away, Al was so lost and sad.

Well,now they are together with mom and dad, making the greatest paper airplanes together.

when al was in highschool,he would come home on the bus and there would be a bunch of little kids waiting for him, all yelling Albie!Albie,Hi Albie!He loved Little kids, probably because he was one at heart.Some how mom always got a kick out of that.Later on in life he would be the proud father of the sweetest baby boy, Jesse.

All of us were given the gift to draw. we got this gift from dad who was one excellent artist.

Al also loved country and western music, cowboy hats, belt buckles boots and jeans. He loved the Native American Indian Ways that he proudly displayed their pictures on his walls. He also liked to get all dressed up.

Baseball and football were loves of his. He loved giving gifts to my three boys. When they were small they would get so excited, and out of control when they new he was coming over to the house.

Al also loved his country and was a very patriotic soul. He was always proud of my boys (Jim, Fred and Steve) when they became marines. They will Miss him so very much.

My heart hurts, Al. I will miss you. I do already. I am sure you will have the angels in uproarious Laughter.

I love you

Your "Sis"

MaryAnn

MaryAnn Kobrin - September 22, 2008 at 12:00 AM

KE

“ Uncle Albie...

I Miss and love you and will continue to miss and love you until we see each other again in heaven.

When I look back on my lifes events such as my dads death,

You saw my soul was a lost one and you filled that void.

You would invite me over for dinner when I worked first shift at stone container. when I look back on it, You knew that I loved to eat but that was your way of getting me to come over so I wouldn't sit home alone. I only lived literally a baseball throw away.

The Phone Call would usually go something like this:

Al: Ken ! You eat Yet ?

Kenny: No Not yet. Not that hungry.

Al: come over, I got dinner started and the sabres game is on.

Kenny: Ok. Be over in a bit.

Your unconditional Love Albie will always be a part of me and my memory of you.

I will be there for jesse as you were for me. You can be reassured of that.

I know that when my dad passed you were also lost. I too noticed this and we became closer by hunting together spending more time together.

You are now with your brother and I miss you both more than my soul can express. My heart is grieving and will continue to grieve until dad, you and myself are sitting together in those lucious green Alfalfa fields enjoying gods creatures and landscapes.

May you find winding streams and forests which fill your soul. I love you uncle and will see you and dad when it is my time.

Love your "Nepew"

Kenny

Kenny - September 22, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ Jesse,

Your Dad will be missed. May his good grace rest with the Lord in the biggest and greatest hunting and fishing venue. Smiling, laughing and joking in his name Jesus Christ our Lord and savior.

Amen, Much love and understanding to you Jesse...

Love You,

Uncle Butch Chilson

Butch Chilson - September 19, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BR

“ To Al's family, I didn't know Al personally, from what I heard he will be missed by many and loved by many more.

BR - September 18, 2008 at 12:00 AM

PA

“ Dear Albie, Thanks! You always made me laugh, sometimes made me mad, but always loved you. I will see you again one day.

Pam - September 18, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BU

“ AI,

To my best friend, you will be missed more than words can ever express! Remember our promise when I see you on the other side, and the beer better be cold! I'll miss you my friend!!

Butch

Butch - September 18, 2008 at 12:00 AM

PD

“ I remember Al from Sweet Home Rd and back in days of St Leo's and grade school He also knew my brother Tommy who has also passed away I remember Al as very kind, very outgoing, and very well liked by all that knew him. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends.

Peggy Druar - September 17, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LO

“ I wanted to send my love to Jessie, Holly and to the rest of Jessie's family. I only knew Al for a short time but in that time when ever I was over he always made me feel like I was welcome even the first time I met him, He will be missed. Jessie and Holly I love you guys

Lori - September 17, 2008 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ Jesse,

My thought and prayers are with you during this difficult time. May God bless you and your family.

Diane Smith - September 17, 2008 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ Al, I will miss seeing you at the credit union. I always enjoyed talking with you.

Tracey Reeves/Sweet Home FCU - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

CK

“ Al,

I will miss you dearly, and the great times we had when we worked side by side. God bless your family.

cheryl krzeminski - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

CO

“ Al, i Will miss running in to u!!Bless ur family!

Cody - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ Pops i love you with all my heart, you will always be missed. love your son Jesse.

Jesse Allein - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

HS

“ Al, I miss you so much. I know that you are at peace and in a better place. We love you so very much. You will be missed dearly.

Love

Holly

Holly Sweitzer - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

SR

“ Our condolences to Jesse and all Al's family. He was our neighbor and friend. We had a some good times over the evening fires at his house and ours. He made an excellent deer steak and I enjoyed each bite. He was kind and helpful. Jesse we are very sorry for your loss (and our's). May he rest in peace. Will play 518 in his memory.
Syl & Den

Sylvia & Den Rinelli - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ I will always remember sweet, little Albie playing with all the kids in the neighborhood. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Bette Carnes - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LJ

“ You've left this world to "hook up" with your brother Ken who was such a good friend [and brother-in-law] of mine. May there be calm lakes and rivers and beautiful woods and fields for you both to enjoy. Fish and hunt with the smile that you always had. Farewell,
Lan

Lan Janecek - September 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM