“ Al was a wonderful man, so kind and giving of himself. I often saw him volunteering alongside his wife Linda, selling flowers in the lobby of DeGraff for Hospice. He was outgoing and loved to travel, he planned wonderful trips for himself and Linda. Al was kind enough to drive me and my family to the airport on a few occasions in his immaculate SUV..so instead of “Uber” we nicknamed his service as “Alber”! He will be so missed by so many! I was privileged to know him and call him a friend!
