“ Erika and Amy were among the first of the Rochez families to welcome me and they've been a huge part of my life ever since. While my heart aches, I still feel so lucky my life was filled with Amy every week. May she shine through Erika every day. We love you Erika. Ms. Kelly, Geoff, Razza & Baby Leach

“ Amy and I were so very close while in high school and then drifted apart in college. I recall her first few times driving after getting her license and the amount of movies we would see while she'd talk through the whole thing. She was a great friend and we just started to reconnect a bit on FB after many many years. My condolences to her family, daughter and many friends.

“ Amy has always been a bright shining light in our family. She was so kind and sweet and never had a unkind thing to say. We cannot believe she has been taken from us so soon. Our hearts are truly broken and we have no words that can describe what a terrible loss this is for our family. Our hearts go out to Uncle Jim, Erika, Sean and Kim and the girls, and Bryan. We can't begin to understand the loss u are feeling. We love u all and we will see you soon. We are truly sorry for your loss Love, Ann and Troy
