

Amy Lynn Sell

April 7, 1978 - June 1, 2026

Amy Lynn Sell passed away suddenly on Monday, June 1, at home with her family by her side.

Born on April 7, 1978, to Thomas and Karen Sell, Amy was a lifelong resident of North Tonawanda and Wheatfield. She loved Bingo, crafting, dogs—especially her beloved Max—going out to eat, country music, cheering on the Buffalo Bills, and shopping. Amy also loved to sing, and her shower time concerts were an example of her infectious and fun spirit.

Family and Legacy

Amy's presence brought her family closer together, and spending time with them was always her greatest priority. She shared a particularly close bond with her mother, Karen, her sisters, Kelli and Dawn, and her nieces and nephews. The love, laughter, and memories she gave so freely will be treasured forever.

Amy was preceded in death by her father, Thomas H. Sell. She is survived by her mother, Karen Sell (Miller); her sisters, Kelli Thompson (Drew) and Dawn Sell (Justin Scricco); her nieces and nephews, Thomas Anthony Sell, Kiersten Thompson, Brenden Thompson, LeeAnnMarie Scricco, and Ava Scricco; as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Amy was devoted to her family and friends and was deeply loved by all who were fortunate enough to know her. We will miss you, Amy, and love you always.
