“ My heart is heavy at the loss of such a wonderful young man. Words can not express the sorrow I feel for his loving parents who did such a wonderful job raising him. I have known and worked with his dad and mom for over 11 years and remember Brandon stopping by to see Paul quite often which gave me the pleasure of seeing him develop into a very polite, respectful young man. In the later years when he was more independent we would cross paths and I always remember him having a smile on his face, always greeting me with his upbeat outlook on life. He never was at a loss for something positive to express. I always called him "Little Koop" because he was the spittin' image of his father. He certainly will be missed dearly by all. Rest in Peace Brandon and be sure to save a seat for me when we meet again!

“ Brandon, you impressed all of us at Emerson when you were a shadow for BOCES. You grew up so much and went on to chase your dream. We taught you what we knew and you continued on. God Speed
