“ Our sincere condolences to Brenda's family. We are terribly saddened by the loss of Brenda. We knew her since meeting her at The Turtle Restaurant for Blues on Saturday afternoons. What a great - down to earth person....always so happy! She will most certainly be missed by Jim and myself, as well as all who knew her.....and, I'll miss dancing with her at GFY's. Every time I wear my "shoulder shirts"...I'll think of Brenda. She showed me how to cut them. I hope Brenda's family will keep Bren's FB page. When I lost my best friend, the family closed her FB page. How often, I wish we could go back to see her photos. Rest in Peace dear friend.

All the bands we went to see; DHU, Freight Train & Friends, Ron LoCurto & the Reinharts, and High Horse-just to name a few... The special talks on my front porch swing(SWWINGG). How much my family, even my handicapped son Jamie adored you! Most of all that we choose we other as sisters. Take a little piece of my heart now baby, I'll get it when I meet you in Heaven.*

“ I was shocked to say the least when I heard that you passed. I think of how happy you made my dad, and how accepting you were of me and my family! I thank you! I know that after my dad passed, you were truly heartbroken. There is a little bit of me that is smiling knowing that my father is no longer alone and has you in his arms again...please let my dad know that I love and miss him! It's comforting to know we have another beautiful angel to watch over us and our four amazing children! ??RIP Brenda??

“ *RIP Brenda. You're the best friend I never got to meet. Will never forget the times talking with you on the phone. We had each other in stitches, laughing at just about anything a person can make fun of. Life always seem to get in the way, and now death does.
