“ My first encounter with Bridget goes back to 1972, when we met in a Parapsychology class. Fate brought us, and several others, together in a friendship lasting decades. Our shared experiences were always enlightening, whether in a class, around a kitchen table, a meditative circle or an office.

In life, many people cross your path but there are few who become a part of your heart. Over the years it didn't matter how much time had passed since our last physical encounter. We always picked up as if we'd seen each other just the past week.

Fly high! May your bubbly persona and humor continue to bless all who walked through the door before you.

Thank you for so many wonderful memories.

Our good times go back to High School, sorority, dances and then you met my brother, Jack Webb. We entered a new relationship. We became sisters in law. We took vacations together. We had so many good times and laughed a lot! Your children with my dear brother mean so very much to me. You have much to be proud of. I'm sure you will have the angels wrapped in laughter and rolling on your hand designed clouds. We will miss you and know you will find many loved ones waiting for you, as you will wait for us. Rest, you deserve it. Love, Carolyn “ Ahhhh....Bridget, we will deeply miss you. Your near daily presence in our lives and home over many years are etched in our hearts and spirits forever with your laughter, quick and funny wit, and ease of enjoying even the smallest moment. You knew how to take those unexpected moments and gifts life offered to make them memorable. Our hearts and prayers go out to your children -whom we knew from childhood to teen years and beyond, and to your extended family and of course to all who knew and do love you. Thank you for being in our lives and all that you gave from your dear heart. The sound of your laughter will remain with me through the remainder of my own years. Godspeed Bridget!

I knew Bridget as a fellow nurse and when she brought her Mother to the Lockport Presbyterian Home. She was spunky and cheerful! We loved having her as our facility nurse because we knew things would be done properly. We had many laughs and shared feelings with each other. She will be missed. My condolences to the family.
