

Bruce Reichmuth

May 16, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ Dear people-----I have not seen Bruce since high school, but from the picture it is clear that this is the person I knew back then. We spent some time together, went to his senior prom, and then I lost track of him. He was such a sweetheart. I remember that my parents were so impressed with what a gentleman he was. You must have had a wonderful husband and father, and you lost him too soon. Thank the funeral home for keeping this posted. I am very glad to have found this. Sincerely-----Karen Bauer Montgomery

Karen Montgomery - January 08, 2021 at 02:58 AM

LI

“ Reichmuth family, I am very sorry for your loss. One of my fondest memories is from years ago when Mr. Reichmuth, Heather and myself went for dinner and he was telling the waitress he would try the "Bruce Bowl" because that was his name so it of course would be delicious. He was always very warm, playful and a great sense of humor. When we drive pass the house, my son talks about the man who played "statues" outside in the garden with him. Always making people smile... Hugs to you all.

Lindsay - June 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

WA

“ There will no doubt be many from Sweet Home's class of 1967 and others, who will take note of Bruce's passing. He was my friend as a boy then, and he was an honouable boy, and a man among boys, An extremely faithful friend. I have a life long memory of exploring the Tonawanda Creek island region in North Amherst.

wayne - June 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PH

“ I've heard many wonderful and funny stories things about Bruce Reichmuth through his daughter Heather, my friend. When I first met him, I knew he was a gentle giant! I'm sure his stories will carry on. Stay strong and God Bless!

Paulette Hawkins - June 13, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ While I never had the privilege of meeting Bruce, I have known his daughter for a few years. Even without meeting him, I know that Bruce was an incredible man. I believe that you can tell a lot about a man by looking at his children. Bruce clearly had a larger-than-life personality and a heart the size to match. I am sorry that I never had the chance to meet Bruce, and my heart goes out to you, his family and friends, for your loss.

Laura Kennedy - June 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LP

“ 6/12- Linda pikeChris my Tai Chi friend. What a wonderful friend you are as you were a wonderful wife. Bruce always knew you were there by his side. I'll never forget how much fun we had at your house on St. Patrick's Day and Bruce's sense of humor and the trip to Gettysburg. He had a ball! I certainly will be with you on Wednesday in thoughts and prayers.

Linda pike - June 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

FP

“ Bruce, your warmth and sense of humor are the two things that stand out in my mind. You're the kind of guy who appreciates the little moments in life. I can't point to a particular time or comment, but just a general, welcoming feel-good sense that would just sort of emanate from you. We are all on this planet for too short a time. I wish you guys had lived a little closer. We would have seen you more. Still, you made yourself right at home with a bunch of loud Italians. I remember you laughing. And in a world where it's far too easy to get down about things laughter is really important. Thanks for being a treat to spend some time with. If there is a hereafter I look forward to having a couple laughs when I join you. Safe journey!

Frank Porto - June 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PR

“ Bruce was always kind to me, he knew I am a quiet person and respected that as who I am. He was the kind of person who appreciates people for who they are, even if you don't understand. One time he asked me what I thought about lady gaga and I said, I like her music, she's different and isn't afraid to show it. He nodded in agreement and said she's just misunderstood. Haha, these little moments showed his kind heartedness and humor that still and will always bring a smile to my face...

Promise reichmuth - June 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BE

“ I have been touched by knowing Mr. Reichmuth! He was so kind, loving, insightful and FUN! I have fond memories of going to the CNE with him and playing Murder Mystery with him and family! Sending love to his family and friends!!!

Bernadette - June 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MG

“ My deepest condolences on the loss of a wonderful husband, man and friend. I will miss his kindness and humor. Love to your family.

Mary Ganier - June 05, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LP

“ Dear Reichmuth family,

Words cannot express what I feel in my heart. We didn't get to see Bruce often but when we did it always seemed so comfortable like we saw him daily. And there was never a dull moment. We will miss him dearly. My dad is there with open arms in heaven for him.

Linda Porto Picozza - June 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ Dear Reichmuth Family,

Please accept our deepest condolences on the passing of your beloved Bruce.

Although I only knew Bruce briefly and during his illness, it was evident how much he enjoyed and had a willingness for life. I just smile thinking of his sense of humor.

And Christine my Friend, you could not have been more loving and supportive as Bruce's health deteriorated.

I know that the support of you 3 kids, Coleen, Heather, Andy and Families, gave strength and comfort to both Bruce and Chris in some dark times.

Much Love and Many Hugs to you all from Paul and Alberta Roman

PS Bruce died on Armed Forces Day according to my calendar

Alberta Roman - May 30, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ So sorry to hear about your loss. I'm praying and thinking about you all. God bless!

Renee Trubiano - May 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM

HR

“ To the greatest father that has walked this earth. Thank you.

Heather Reichmuth - May 28, 2015 at 12:00 AM