“Caitlyn, it's crazy how often I think of you. You are such a sweet, kind, joyful person that I was very lucky to get to work with and become friends with. I watched the Bills come back and every time I watch the Bills I think of you. Same with listening to NIN, which I obviously do a lot of this time of year. I think you would've laughed at that. Miss you, Caitlyn. Thanks for allowing me to get to know you.

“Caitlyn, you were the brightest of lights in some very dark places, brilliant, kind, and endlessly generous. A teammate who solved hard problems with grace and made everyone around her better. Even through tears, she found a way to make us laugh, and in doing so taught us how to hold joy and grief together. Her light lives on in the ripples she left, in the work she elevated, the people she lifted, and the laughter she gifted us along the way. My thoughts and support to your family and loved ones, you will absolutely be missed. We will all carry your memory fondly Caitlyn and with the same energy you brought to everyone around you.

“ I never thought I'd be writing on a wall like this for you. Caitlyn you were such a light to not only me but so many others. We have had some of the hardest belly laughs as well as some of the ugliest ugly cry sessions as we navigated work, college, friends and family together. You will be missed so much. I love you forever and always. Lo and Co 4E <3

“ I was heartbroken to hear about Caitlyn's passing. She was an incredible colleague and an even better person. What I'll remember most is how she always took the time to listen. Whether it was a work challenge or just a quick chat about life, she was always so present and open. Her kindness and warmth were inspiring; you will be missed!
My thoughts are with her loved ones during this difficult time.

“ Caitlyn, words are escaping me. I thoroughly enjoyed our weekly meetings and spontaneous chats, some were sad and some made me laugh until I cried. I'm truly going to miss you. You may have been my manager for a bit, but you were still my 'work daughter' and always will be. Your ability to carry a bubbly conversation and always look on the bright side, regardless of what was going on behind the scenes, was an inspiration. May we all learn that lesson from you. Condolences to all the family, friends and co-workers. You will be missed kiddo.

“ Caitlyn, you were an amazing person. You had this incredible way of making everyone feel comfortable and at ease. I'll miss our work chats and how you could turn any conversation into laughter. You were always the first to step up and bring people together in celebrating both the big and little things. I'm thankful to have known you.

“ You were an amazing manager, an amazing co-worker, and most importantly an amazing friend. I’m going to miss our weekly chats, the positivity you always brought to the table, and the way you could turn any stressful moment into laughter. Your energy, encouragement, and sense of humour made even the toughest days brighter—and I’ll always be grateful for that. I will miss you Caitlyn.

You guided me with wisdom, lifted me with kindness, and stood by me with love. Life feels emptier without you, but my heart is full of the memories we shared. I will carry your spirit with me always. I miss you* ❤️

“ There are too many memories to list here. This girl was a friend to me like no other. We smiled through tears, learned from and taught each other, and left our mark on cities (and a few airports) across the country. Who is going to warn me not to burn my mouth on fried pickles now? You are with me every day, but that doesn't change the fact that I miss you so much it hurts. ☐
