“ Carol was the Mother of my dear childhood friends Steve and Chrissy. She was a talented beautician who enjoyed helping people. Carol and Steve helped me to secure a job at a local Country Club, which supported my college education. I can't count the number of times I was invited into their home and was made to feel (or told) I was part of the family. I will always be grateful for Carol and the Miano family. Rest in Peace, fly high, and be reunited with your husband Peter.

“ Carol was a great neighbor and friend. My children all loved her and her sense of humor could be astounding. We had some great times shopping and just sitting visiting. God Bless Her.
