“ It is with my humblest condolences that I am passing along sympathies to you and your family. My immediate family, knew Mr. Brodfuehrer as one of their fondest teacher's at Starpoint. As you deal with your loss, I'm hoping to lift your heavy heart.

Hearing the news from my daughter who goes to school with Delaney as well as cheers with her. Knowing the relation I passed along the unfortunate news with my family. I witnessed reactions, pauses, all separately unique. Signs of sadness, that then opened up many stories, fond memories and laughter, all reflections filled with respect and the impact he had on my uncles and aunts. He wasn't just a educator, he was a mentor, a friend, and shaped students by example. Things you can't learn from a text book. Praying that throughout this difficult time, please find solace that the mere mention of him and memories was powerful enough to make my family stop, smile and reflect on the imprint he made on their lives, individually.

As a veteran from a military family, I also would like to honor his service and sacrifice. Having been both, there is an unspoken, but palpable, understanding of what service before self really means. It is not singular.

With the upmost respect and gratitude I pray this may give you some small comfort to guide you and your family through your loss.
Respectfully, The Ailing Family
