“ Goodness, this is just too sad. Was in the NTHS marching band with Chris. Often the flute section marched near the trombone section. He added much to the brass section. Certainly a strong musician. Left us far too young. May God comfort your family during this season of loss. Lynne Smist-Smith

“ I always thought of Chris as a friend, and even though I hadn't seen him in awhile, the last time was at Dicamillo's Bakery. I wasn't sure if I had enough money to get what I wanted so he waited until I cashed out so I wouldn't have to walk back out to my car. He truly had a heart of gold!! He was over at my house one day and saw my Aldi's House dressing so I let him have a bottle of it, he liked it so much I would always get an extra one for him when I would go. I'm gonna miss him.

“ I was so sorry to hear about the loss of another cousin. Not living where I grew up I don't have recent memories of my cousins but the old memories are still with me. RIP Chris

“ Chris was my friend in high school. We played trombone together in multiple bands and marched in the front row down the streets of NT in many fireman's parades. Chris was a strong player and inspired the section to play with force! He always had the section laughing with his jokes too. I moved to TX after college and lost touch with him. I had hoped to see him again one day to reminisce about our younger days. RIP Chris, your memory lives on buddy.

“ I have so many fun memories of my cousin Chris when we were kids. Getting together at Grandma's or one of the relatives. There was always a party going on somewhere, where we were all able to be together. Chris was a very funny guy, always joking around with one of us. I don't think I ever remember Chris being serious. He was just always smiling and happy<3 Rest in Peace Christopher. Your cousin, Maureen

“ Chris was a good cousin to me. Always playing around and teasing me...just what an older cousin should do!! I have missed hanging with him and am saddened I will never have the chance to talk hockey again with him. Rest in piece good cousin.
