“ You touched so many CJ. The past 3 years of getting to know you, I was glad to call you a friend. My heart aches with your passing. I know you will shine down and your teachings in so many will live in others. I will miss our talks about football, kids and hunting. May god bless your family and children. ~Todd

“ My heart breaks for you and the kids everyday. I see CJ and cry but then have to smile at what a wonderful person he was and a WONDERFUL example of a man and hero he was to my son Griffin. When I think of the father my son does not have I then look at the man and father figure he was lucky enough to have in his life and think "wow some kids will never have the opportunity of having CJ in their life"...for that we were lucky.....very very lucky. The only man who has ever told my son he was proud of him and was truly sincere. Forever in our hearts.. thank you COACH
