“ I loved being greeted by Cindy every morning that I walked into North Tonawanda Middle School to get my day started teaching . She was intelligent, caring , down to earth beautiful woman. We would talk and brag about our three adult sons. We each had three adult son around the same age that we adored. She loved them so much and was so proud of each one. At work, she was more than a co-worker , she was a friend . My condolences. Arlene Stallard

“ To all the Hosmer and Jaccarino family: the Machaby family sends our sincerest condolences. Our family had a cottage in Long Beach right next to the Hosmer's for many years in the 70's and 80's with several other T/N.T. families. I remember Cindy as being so sweet. “ My heart aches knowing I will not be able to visit Cindy again when I visit NY. Cindy and I developed a very special friendship over the years when our kids were in grade school and continued it via long distance thereafter. I will miss our talks as well as our discussions on how we should approach matters. Fly high in our Lords arms, my friend and until we meet again.... ❤️❤️❤️

“ Cindy and I were the best of friends through High School and Beyond. My parents were good friends with her parents Clair and “Bud” and would often have social card games that rotated between houses. Cindy’s presence was always a stimulus to a great evening! I still cherish those memories and can’t imagine the heart break that her brothers Dave and Richie are going through. My sincere condolences to her family and anyone who had the opportunity to know Cindy—a rare genuine and loving individual! God Bless the entire family!

“ Our family sends our deepest condolences to the Jaccarino and Hosmer family and are praying for peace and comfort in the loss of Cindy. We share decades of memories with Cindy and her family in Buffalo or at Crystal Beach and Long Beach for Christmas in July. Cindy also shared her love to collect beach glass with Evelyn & Luke and we have those kept in a mason jar for memories - we will always think of her as we continue to spot those colored pieces on the shores in summer. Our family has sent a donation to the Wounded Warrior project in memory of Cindy. God bless.
Love, Suzie McLernon, Kenneth, Jon, Suzanne, Johan, Evelyn and Luke.

“ Cindy and I went to Highland elementary school together when we were kids. When we were in the third grade, I wrote a note to her telling her that I liked her. But it was intercepted by our music teacher, Mrs. Stowell. What an embarrassment. I don't think she ever got the note.

I also went to Highland school for kdg & first grade. My family lived a few houses down from the Hosmer's on King Street. I ran into Cindy about 6 years ago at Canal fest & we would run into each other there the next couple of years to follow. Haven't seen her in at least the past 3 years or so. So surprised & saddened to hear of her passing. So sorry for your loss Dave & Ritchie!

“ Tom, Mike, Mark, and Mitch - I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincerest condolences. The emptiness is crushing and it does not go away. You just get better at coping with it. Focus on all the great memories you have together. Continue to support RPCI and Hospice, I do even though Lynn was treated down here. I am truly sorry, my friend. Maybe Cindy and Lynn can have a visit together after she finishes orientation.
