

Clara Mae Anderson (Lang)

April 29, 1942 - January 3, 2023

Clara Mae Anderson (nee Lang) of North Tonawanda, New York passed away, peacefully and surrounded by her children, on Tuesday, January 3rd, 2023 after a brief illness. Clara was born in Buffalo, New York on April 29th, 1942 to parents Albert and Mary (nee Hennigan). Clara was a retired healthcare professional for People, Inc where she worked for many years.

Clara greatly enjoyed the company of her dear friends with whom she shared countless dinners out, nights full of country line dancing, and her favorite activity...Bingo. Clara was also an avid Buffalo Bills fan and cheered them on during every game.

Clara is survived by her loving children, daughters Holly Campbell and Lisa (Bliss) Anderson as well as her son Leonard "Lenny" (Keri) Anderson. She will also be greatly missed by her grandchildren Joshua, Lennox, and Layden.

A private memorial will be held, by the family, at a later date.
