

Damon E. Rose

June 12, 1954 - December 16, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Damon E. Rose, 70, of Tonawanda, New York, Monday (December 16, 2024) suddenly at home. Damon was born in North Tonawanda, New York on June 12, 1954 to James and Mildred E. (Foster) Rose. He was a truck driver for Snyder Industries and then later at Timber Creek Resources, where he was the lead machine set up. In addition to being a caring and present father Damon was also a father figure to many of his sons friends showing them the love and attention many of them were lacking, helping them learn life lessons and teaching them how to fix things on their own. Damon's heart was filled with love to share. In his spare time Damon was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed camping with his family, woodworking, birdwatching, and figuring out how to fix things. He is survived by his children Lisa Schwenk, Charles "Chuck" Rose, Eric (Abigail Thorpe) Rose, and PJ Hankinson, Grandson Linus Rose, granddaughter Jessica (Kyle) Cline, granddaughter Kayla Hankinson and grandson Trystan Hankinson, brother Theodore (Donna) Rose and sister in law Norma Rose, niece and nephews Taylor, Jacob, Rachel, Travis and Gary. Damon was preceded in death by parents James and Mildred (Foster) Rose, and brother Jon Rose. A celebration of Damon's Life will be held Saturday January 4th @ 5:00 PM it will be at Burning Books which is @ 420 Connecticut St. Buffalo, NY 14213.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

JAN 4. 5:00 PM (ET)

Burning Books
420 Connecticut St.
Buffalo, NY 14213