

Deborah G Sepielli

September 6, 1967 - January 31, 2021

Deborah "Debbie" Guido Sepielli, born September 6, 1967, the daughter of Carole (Dierdorf) and the late Eugene Guido, passed away peacefully Sunday, January 31, 2021 in the care of Niagara Hospice. Debbie was 53 years old and fought a courageous battle of small cell carcinoma.

She could easily be described as the life of the party, always having a smile on her face, laughing, joking and just enjoying every second of every day.

Debbie helped everybody. Whether someone needed advice, a shoulder to cry on or just needed a friend, she was always there.

Debbie loved to travel to the Caribbean, go to the casino, however her favorite hobby was spending time with people she loved. Debbie will be greatly missed by her children Johnathan (Weo) Sepielli and Nicolette Sepielli; her brother Daniel Guido. Debbie also had 2 dogs, Mia and Mason that she just spoiled and loved to pieces. She loved her business, JD Gifts LLC, and everyone who was ever apart of it throughout the years. Debbie really treasured all her friends and family, especially her soul mate, John. Debbie and John were together for over 20 years. Throughout the years they traveled many places, created a home and a beautiful life together.

At her wishes, a celebration of life will be held at a later date.

As everyone knows Debbie's biggest passion was helping others. To all her friends and family, let her help you prevent this awful cancer and stop smoking. She will smile looking down on you knowing she saved others lives from this disease.

In Debbie's memory as well, simply remember her and pay it forward. At some point, just do an act of kindness you wouldn't normally do. Take that extra step and make someone's day like she always did and make someone smile.

Donations can be made in her memory to Ronald McDonald House Charities. Debbie will rest peacefully at Mount Olivet in Kenmore, NY.

“I met Debbie about 15 years ago at the Casino,when she sat down at my blackjack table,and we instantly became friends. We would get together for lunch or dinner,and I would always tell her my crazy business ideas. She always supported my ideas,and always offered to financially back me up,but they were just ideas. She would invite to her beautiful pool,and we would just float and tell casino stories. She was a beautiful woman that a beautiful soul,she will be truly missed ❤️

*“ I'll never forget the day I met you debbie. You welcomed me into the family with open arms with no questions asked. I'll miss you so much, you will forever always be a second mom to me. I can't thank you enough for everything you've done for me. You saved me, you saved me from a time where I was a dark dark place and you helped me through thick and thin to help me get out of it make me the better person that I am today. I wouldn't know to do if I've never met you and been a part of your family. You'll never be forgotten.
Miss you, love you Debbie ❤️*

“ We met 25 years ago when my son and her daughter Nikki were in pre K.. we have been close friends ever since and I've worked for her family and her for most of those years.. I am close to her children and love them as my own ...she was and will always be unlike any other I have met or will ever meet .. she was a beautiful soul and my heart will have an empty spot without her here.. she was a one in a trillion and I will miss her horribly! RIP my friend! 🙏

“ Debbie was such a dynamic and enjoyable person to be around. Always doing sometime exciting and smiling broadly. Debbie's generous nature was only exceeded by her warm personality. Yvonne and I were heartbroken when Debbie told us of her diagnosis. Debbie left all of use far too soon. There will always be an emptiness in the world while heaven received an angel. Our lives were enriched by being Debbie's friend. Love to family, Dan and Yvonne Vivian
