

Debra "Debbie" Dziadzio

July 16, 1954 - February 11, 2024

Debra "Debbie" Dziadzio, 69, of Amherst, New York (February 11, 2024) in Millard Fillmore Suburban. Debra was born in North Tonawanda on July 16, 1954, to Richard J Dziadzio and Marjorie (Jakubowski) Dziadzio. Debra was predeceased by her Father Richard Dziadzio. She is survived by Mother Marjorie Crews, her son Jason Dziadzio (Sara Hanavan), sister Kris Bennett, grandchildren (Andrew, Abbie and Anthony Dziadzio), nephew Michael (Heather) Bennett. Debra retired from the California Department of Transportation as a Railroad Official. Debbie had interests included travel and history and she enjoyed visiting obscure and out of the way places most commonly in the Western United States, Hudson Valley, and West Virginia, where she enjoyed the company of many friends. A celebration of life will be held at a date and time to be announced.

Tribute Wall

AC

“ Even though our lives have taken us on different paths, there are so many memories that I often think about from our childhood! I’m so sorry that you are gone, and wish we could have had more time to make more memories! I always looked forward to your stopping in before we both moved away. I pray for Aunt Margie, Krissie, Jason and the grandkids for strength during such a difficult time!! And I’m sorry that you’re no longer with us!

Annette (Cannon) Trosterud/1st cousin - March 24, 2024 at 11:47 AM

LD

“ I am So glad I seen u at the reunion this summer. We made plans an I am shocked that u r gone now. U will be missed and I am so sorry to ur son an family.

Lisa Dwyer - February 22, 2024 at 02:44 PM

KB

Debbie, what can I say. I will always miss you. You were my other half. We will let the past go and only live in that short present we had together. I still miss the sister I always wanted but didn't have. But, more importantly I had you in the end. Praise God for that. I'll see you again. Love you forever, Krissie!

Kris Bennett - March 23, 2024 at 09:11 AM