

Diane M. Winters

January 18, 1960 - August 30, 2020

Diane Winters, 60, of Buffalo, New York, lost her courageous battle to cancer at home surrounded by family, under the care of Hospice Buffalo on Sunday August 30, 2020. Diane was born in Niagara Falls, NY on January 18, 1960 to Gerald and Gail (Cantara) Winters, She was a graduate from Fredonia High School in 1978. She was predeceased by her father Gerald Winters. Diane was an administrative assistant at Synder Corp.

Diane is survived by her husband George Rance, mother Gail Winters, sister of Randy (Candi DiBiase), Patricia (Michael) Jusko, aunt of Timothy (Shannon), Matthew Winters, Derek and Morgan Jusko. Funeral services will be held privately, Donations may be made to Buffalo Hospice, 225 Como Park Blvd, Buffalo, NY 14227 or Roswell Park Cancer Institute, <https://www.roswellpark.org/>.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ I will always remember her smile, laugh and the kind person she was. I'm so sorry to hear this. May your family cherish all the beautiful memories for years to come and may God be with you during this trying time. My thought are with your family.

Jill Kuehn - September 07, 2020 at 10:38 PM

JK

“ Jill Kuehn lit a candle in memory of Diane M. Winters

Jill Kuehn - September 07, 2020 at 10:30 PM

MW

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have nothing but great memories of Diane and her entire family. We all had so much fun playing and growing up as kids and always remained friends. She will be greatly missed and remebered fondly. Mark Williams

Mark Williams - September 07, 2020 at 12:53 AM