“ Dear Cousin,

My heart aches hearing the passing of cousin Butch. I will forever remember all of the family reunions, New Years Eve parties, family trips to Ohio and most of all my wedding. I'll never forget the image of him dancing with the Roman pillar. He was so full of life, energy and I'm not sure I ever saw the man without a smile. Warmed every room he entered. We are go blessed to have had him in our lives. We will forever miss you! Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. We love you!

“ Dear Paula, Don was a special person in life. You may or may not remember me but I spent many a night with Don when he rode in our police cars with us. It was great to hear his stories and listen to his experiences on the sheriff's dept .. it was always great to know he had “our backs” even tho he was away from official duties. I do know that he loved you deeply and talked about you all the time. We shall all meet some day for another round ! Until then RIP Don .. you will be missed ! PO 45 NTPD Richard Biro
