“ As a very close friendship with Deborah in high school mid 70's , Doris was an unbelievable mother, so giving and so nice, I have never forgotten her, Franklin and especially Deborah, after all if these years. I'm shocked to hear, and saddened with the news and that I found out so late. Deborah, prayers and good wishes to you , I'm still around, Darrell....

“ We will always remember her as the nicest, sweet caring secretary at Spruce Elementary in North Tonawanda. Even after our boys were LONG graduated, she would always ask about them. We'll miss her. Tom and Beth Galas
