March 14, 1921 - January 7, 2017

Witty, charming, and smart, Those are a few words to start. She was strong, brave, and kind, Another like her you will not find. Both mother and grandmother, A Wife, a sister, and a friend. She was forever devoted and loyal, Loving each one of us to the end. Her sparkling blue eyes, And contagious sense of fun, She made us all laugh, She was as bright as the sun. A devoted wife of 53 years, She married her true love. And though he went earlier, She's now with him above. Her daughter carries her torch, She has her patience, peace, and joy. It's obvious in the love for her family, And that's passed down to her own daughter and baby boy. Her sons always made her proud, Whether it was sitting with her or driving her around. Her face lit up and her arms would open wide, The love and joy she could not hide. From countless trips to Maine, Or anywhere else we might go, Games, recitals, plays, and babysitting, Edie was always ready to go. With a willingness to laugh, And a piece of advice to ponder, She leaves us with a lifetime of wisdom, And an endless sense of wonder. Life can have regrets, But I don't think Edie had any. She lived life to the fullest, And her accomplishments were many. I can only hope we all share that someday, And can look back at life in the same way. To have lived and loved to the greatest degree, To leave behind this kind of legacy. Though she isn't here now, We know she's laughing and dancing above. She's playing bridge, admiring the roses, And seeing so many that she loved. You gave us all your very best, In fact you gave us your all. We thank God for allowing us to know you, For every moment big and small. We'll never forget how you made us feel, We'll never let the stories fade. You leave behind a lifetime of love, And years of memories made. So let us say until later for now, For as believers we know this to be true. We'll do all we can to honor your life, And above all we love you.
