

Elizabeth A. Geddes (also affectionately known as Liz, Lizzie, and Betty)

June 28, 1957 - July 12, 2021

Elizabeth A. Geddes was a caring mother, sister, aunt, and friend. She left this world after a sudden illness on July 12, 2021 at age 64.

Elizabeth (also affectionately known as Liz, Lizzie, and Betty) was born to Stanley and Josephine Skillaci in Buffalo, New York. Growing up, she was a gifted dancer, an accomplished horseback rider, and a talented musician.

After college, she excelled professionally and became a Vice President at MetLife, all while raising three children Jeremy, Jamie, and Michael.

Upon retirement, Elizabeth enjoyed gardening, interior decorating, and playing games with family and friends. Elizabeth was incredibly witty and wonderfully thoughtful. Her generous and fun-loving spirit will be dearly missed.

In addition to her three children, Elizabeth leaves behind her four sisters Barbara, Theresa, Margaret, and Joan, her nieces Dawn, Suzanne, Denise, and Rebecca, her nephews Andrew and William, her son-in-law Arnar, her grand-doggy Gló, and her grand-kitty Sida. She also leaves behind her extended family of Nicholas, Mary, Nicholas Jr., Rhiannon, James Jr., Justin, Liliana, and Anthony.

Elizabeth's life will be celebrated at St. Mark Church, 401 Woodward Ave. in Buffalo, at 10am on Monday, July 19, 2021. Burial to follow at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, 3063 Harlem Road in Buffalo. Please wear bright and colorful clothing. Funeral Mass live streaming at https://youtu.be/W7P_EB2j-8E

Cemetery Details

Holy Sepulchre Cemetery

3063 Harlem Road
Cheektowaga, NY 14225

Previous Events

Mass of Christian Burial

JUL 19. 10:00 AM (ET)

St Mark Church
401 Woodward Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14214

Tribute Wall

“ *An incredibly hilarious lady - beyond generous - life of the party.
We'll miss you Betty. I love you.* ”

Dawn Mulroy - July 18, 2021 at 12:25 PM