“ From the Western New York Chapter of the Church and Synagogue Library Association (CSLA_WHY Chapter)::: We are saddened and express our sympathy to Gerald and family. Beth was a wonderful friend and president of the chapter for several years. Her leadership and wisdom helped many of us in our church libraries.

“ Many years ago Beth and Jerry opened their loving home to me, where I stayed for almost a year as an exchange student from Norway. Beth was like a second mother to me. She was such an amazing woman, and both she and Jerry made my stay away from home wonderful. I've been blessed to know her and my thoughts and prayers are with Jerry and the family. With love from Anita
