“Libby was a wonderful person and a dear friend. She vicariously shared in my travel experiences when her own movement was limited. Since we were high school classmates, we often discussed the "good old days". One of my last messages to her was, "Libby, we're going to France in September". I'm sorry that I won't be able to share my experiences with her. I will never forget her kindness, her love for her family, and her optimistic outlook in spite of her illness.

“ Loving condolences to all of Mrs. Zastrow's family and friends. It was a pleasure to have grown up across the street and have some fond and funny memories. Such as the time she jokingly threatened to hit Kirk with her broom when she was out sweeping. Or the time I found out as an adult not to call her Libby, even though Mr. Zastrow found it quite comical. May she rest in peace, she will greatly be missed.

“ What a wonderful, beautiful lady this world has lost. Of the literally hundreds of times I saw "Mrs. Zastrow," not once do I remember her without a smile on her face -- that very same smile as in the photo. My heart goes out to the entire Zastrow family; may her soul live on in the many lives she touched.

*With the fondest of memories and much love,
