“ I am thinking of my cousin Ellen and remembering my visits with her these past few years. We would sit on her porch and admire/talk about her beautiful flowers. She would share stories of our families, bits of family history and she would put names to the photographs I shared with her. We went to lunch and she knew where we could go to see houses our parents lived in and stonework our great grandfather Andrew and grandfather Samuel Getty had constructed. We held hands and remembered days when we were children and visited Tonawanda. Ellen and Judy were our grownup cousins that we admired. My sister Molly and I were always excited when we had news of the Vossen family. All my love to you, Ellen, and your family. Our visits to Tonawanda will be lonely, without you.

Always,

“ Ellen was like a grandma living next door to us. She enjoyed sitting in her pink swing watching over the neighborhood while chatting it up.
Her gardens were beautiful and she had a nice fish pond in the back too.
She loved to craft and bake which was evident on special occasions.
Her friendship and kindness will be missed.
She loved her family very much.
