“ My name is Kathy Nicosia and I had the pleasure and honor of working and with your mother at Taylor Devices for a short time. She was such a soft spoken and sweet person. There was a particularly bad day for me at work one time that I actually started crying, which was not like me. When I got to work the next day, there was a small bouquet of flowers and candy on my desk. When I found out that it was from Erika, I asked her why. Her response was that she felt so sorry for me and wanted to do something that she hoped would perk me up! Well, it certainly did! That what so typical of Erika. She was such a sensitive and caring person. My deepest sympathy and prayers for your loss. She will be missed!
