“ Dear Fred:
My sincerest condolences on the loss of your wife. It seems that as we grow older, a lot of us aren't around. I heard from Whitey Johnson and as we thought about some of the old gang I remembered that you and Bill Blatz had gone to Buffalo..and was shocked to read of Florence's passing.

“ So very sorry to hear that Gramma Hallgren has passed and I'm very sorry to be out of town and unable to come and say goodbye.

There are many memories that I have with Gramma Hallgren as she was a very vital part of my young life. I very vividly remember being very young, perhaps 5, and Gramma had made Ham Salad sandwiches for lunch. For whatever reason, I didn't want ham salad, and proceeded to complain about how 'disgusting' it was. She looked at me sternly and said, "Listen, there is going to be many times in life when you don't like something that someone has made for you, especially food, but you have to remember that you may hurt someones feelings! So if you don't like it, you eat what you can, and you sit quietly."

My young brain realized that simple things could make people feel bad. It is a little thing, but she made me a better person.

I felt that I should share this with you. And I'm sorry that I didn't realize to tell her sooner.

“ To my wonderful Grandma you will forever be in our hearts. I have so many fantastic memories of you, you always were so kind, funny and your smile always lite up the room. Yours and Grandad's love for each other was plain to see and something that myself and Charlotte strive to be like. I am sure everyone who has ever been graced with your presence with agree when I say our great loss is heavens gain. Love you loads and loads Grandma
