“ My deepest sympathy to Roxanne, Mellisa and Cory for the loss of Skip. As a frequent visitor to the Buffalo area , one of the things I looked forward to was visiting Skip. Fewer people have made me laugh more than him. I also liked his directness. He had no problem telling it like it is. My visits to N. Tonawanda will have a little bit missing from now on but as I write this, he still brings a smile on to face. Thanks, Skip.

“ Some memories I have of "Skip" go way back. like living across from each other and sharing the "Beer Meister", seeing Kenny Loggins in Maple Leaf Gardens when he could barely fit in the seat and complained as only he could, and sharing McCartney and Beatles stories. He had a great sense of humor and could easily "liven up" every family gathering. I could go on. He also brought two beautiful children into this world with Melissa and Cory with hearts of gold. My sympathy to you Rocky, Melissa and Cory...my prayers are with you all.

“ Roxanne, Cory, Melissa & family~So sorry to hear of Skip’s passing. The best years of my working life were at Meadow School with Skip. He was so kind, helpful, & so much fun with his unbelievably quick wit. He was always there when the delivery truck came to help with the heavy stuff. I’m sure everyone who worked at Meadow felt the same way about Skip. May he Rest In Peace. Amy Skidmore

“ My deepest sympathy to Skip’s family, Go YANKEES. Old baseball fans never die, they just keep cheering from the sidelines. Skip leaves a legacy through the lives of his children: Melissa and Cory and his grandchildren: Avery and Finnlea.
