“ I met gabby when we were in a silly situation over nothing, and after everything we ended up being cool friends and hanging out here and there. She was the light of the party and the brightest smile in the room. She could turn your mood from sour to happy in the matter of seconds. I know we had our differences, and I know that we didn't talk much, I will forever be grateful that I got meet her and got to know her. She will forever be missed and I hope the heavens know what they have ❤️ Rest in peace angel 🙏💔

“ Gabby was my bestfriend since the first day of seventh grade. It wasn't awkward or weird, it was genuine, it felt normal like I just met my forever friend. We did everything together, everyday, for almost 10 years. I can't even talk about memories, we have to many to write, I'll forever hold the memories in my heart. Thankyou for everything you have and your family has done for me. I love you gabby forever .

“ Gabby was always such a really sweet girl when I would talk to her on the phone at work. I didn't know her too well, but I knew her enough to know she was a good person. She was a beautiful soul, always helpful, smart, and sometimes a little goofy when she would make me laugh. She will be missed. Rest In Peace Gabby, may you fly high in heaven with our Lord Jesus.

“ Gabby was truly a good person. I loved talking to her on the phone at work several times a week for the past three years. She always made me laugh. She said the funniest things and always put a smile on everyone's face. I hope she truly rests in peace.
