“ I'm Shocked brother. The memories will last forever. You always brought laughter into anything we did. Cruising the island looking for the gooch. Foosball at B.A's or wherever else there was a foosball table, No spin-o-Rama !! From the pig roast looking for cow #420 to watching the Raiders play whoever. You were always saying “ there's an idea” lol. Run To The Hills my friend. You will forever be missed....

“GLang was truly one of a kind and I was lucky to have him as a friend for 20+ years. He made every life he touched a little brighter just by being in it. I'm holding back tears as I remember the good times, the endless laughter, and yes, the occasional chaos (with Ski and Puck at ETS for one)

Some of the best stories in my life started on completely random nights with him. That was his gift turning the ordinary into something unforgettable.

Losing him brings a deep sadness, but it's impossible not to smile through the grief when I think about all the moments we shared and the impact he had on everyone lucky enough to know him.

Rest in peace, my friend.

May his memory be a blessing.

“ To my dear friend. 25 years, man. I barely know where to start with the memories. My mantrums at the hands of yet another defeat to your Rich Gannon led Raiders in Madden. The doorman at the club in Cleveland. The “My Time to Shine” Girl at the drinking fountain at NCO when all you wanted was a sip of water. The laughs, the lunches, your love of cole slaw... & of course the occasional debauchery. I know you’d understand that due to one of those babies upstairs sleeping during our Madden nights now getting married in Ohio this weekend, this will have to be my good bye. So many hugs I wanna give to the people whose lives you touched so deeply like Ski, Sal, & Tom. So many more, I’m sure. You were so loved and will never be forgotten.

“ Gary, I still can't believe you are gone. They say you can't choose your family members, but you were the exception. You were the unofficial brother in law to us and uncle to all our kids. Holidays and family gatherings will not be the same. No offense Gary, but at family gatherings the same question was always asked " Is Uncle Gary coming?" Not that you ever late showing up. Bob will miss his movie buddy. Please give our loved ones hugs and continue to watch over the kids.

I haven't the words that would even come close to expressing how much you'll be missed my brother. Not just by me but by so many others as well. The kayak trips, the fishing trips or just hanging out. None of that will ever be the same without your presence. You brought your smile with you everywhere you went. The Blades will honor you on every paddle brother. I know you'll be watching over a lot of people

“ I'm not ready to say goodbye to my "brother in law" and best movie buddy. However, it's consoling to know he is at peace with Christ.

That is consoling. I have a hole in my heart though that my brother always filled. I miss him so much already.
