“ Greg was one of my first friends when I moved to North Tonawanda. A great guy and a talented one. I taught him how to land an Ollie, then he became a better skateboarder than me. We learned to wakeboard together, then he became better than me.. you get the point. Rest in Peace, Spinner....

Our dearest Greg.. Thank you for making my daughter and my grandchildren so happy.. All the Love and cherished moments you shared with them, always put a smile on their faces. And even Larry and I shared some eventful fun times along the way. we didn't know you very long but the time we did will always be remembered. Rest in Peace friend, until we meet again. Love Larry and Christine💕
