“ I met Greg over 20 years ago. He was always sweet, kind and respectful. He was so proud of his family and loved them so much. He will be missed by many.

“ I've only known Greg for a short time but I will be eternally thankful that he looked out for and cared for my sister so dearly. I will miss his laugh and his singing his Rolling Stones hits to me whenever he got the chance. His light shined bright in this world as I'm sure it is in the next one with the angels.

“ Where to start? I have such fond memories of Greg. When we were growing up , he was always around to make us girls laugh. He never told on us, and always enjoyed our teenage girl capers. Throughout the years he always maintained his friendly demeanor and sense of humor. He was like the Mayor of Elmwood, and never missed a trick. He will surely be missed. Sending my love and condolences to the family.

“ Oh boy, what can I say about my Uncle Greg. He was a character! He always knew how to make everyone laugh and I've never met anyone who could talk quite like him. When he came and stayed with us in Louisiana, I literally watched him scroll through his entire contact list and call every person's number he had saved. We took him to get ice cream at Jamie's once and he ordered a banana split and nearly broke the spoon trying to shovel the biggest bites into his mouth. Then he about knocked himself out wiping his face with a napkin. I know he drove so many people absolutely insane, but he loved and was loved so deeply. I'm thankful I have so many voicemails on my phone from him so I can listen to them when I need a laugh. I know he's in heaven right now talking everyone's ear off about how much the Bills suck and how much he idolizes his brother Charlie♥ He's probably singing some Rolling Stones song too lol. Uncle Greg, you will be missed so much! I love you, your niece Anna.
