“ What a great guy!!! I am lucky to have had Butchie for my first cousin. He was a teenager when I was born. I remember what a joker he used to be when I was young! He came to the house that I grew up in, to spray all of the ceilings, for my parents. I was bugging him, so he chased me with the hose that he was using. Everyone that knew Butch, loved him! He was a gentle man, a hard worker, who had a knack for many things. I remember him telling me when I was very young, that whatever my job in life was, do my best, whether it be scrubbing toilets, shoveling cow dung, or whatever, if I did my best, it would be a good job. I have carried that advice through my life so far. I could sit, and listen to him play the guitar and sing for hours. He will be greatly missed, and the world will be a sadder place without his presence.
