“ You have always been so warm and welcoming over the many years I have known you! You made me feel like a part of your family. My favorite memories from this past year are building the elevated gardens with you and watching you enjoy the lamb chops!! I love you so much and will miss you dearly. Melissa

“ Hank, Dad, always had a spare hand ready to place on your shoulder, making you feel stronger, stand taller, and now, I hope, helping to fortify all of us as we move forward without him, especially our beloved Mom, and his four children. How blessed I am to have crossed your paths. Rest well, Hank. We'll miss you. With love, Carol Ballock
