“ My heartfelt sympathy to Jacquie's family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I will always cherish the times you taught me how to bake and how to can peaches lol. All the times we were neighbors and you let me show up at 3am smelling like a skunk because we got sprayed and you still let me in! How you let my kids come trick or treating and you always had something special for them and still let them walk around your house thinking trick or treat meant to take whatever they wanted for their bucket! You will be forever missed

“ Dear Scott, Michael and the Domagala Family,
As sudden and unexpected as Jacquie's passing was, be confident that she is now experiencing absolute joy in heaven. At Marlene's and my wedding, Jacquie was just 9 years old, but even then she was wonderfully outgoing. I happily recall so many family gatherings in Pendleton and was able to watch Jacquie grow into the very fine woman she became. Know that you now have a lovely angel watching over you. Let the beautiful memories of Jacquie lift your spirits at this very difficult time. God bless you with His loving grace always.

“ Jackie came to our house when she was 12 years old to ask if she could be our babysitter. She lived down the road and saw the birth announcement for Ed in the paper. She said she had lots of experience taking care of her brothers and sisters. I will be always thankful to her for introducing us to the Domagala family. She will be sorely missed.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Jacquie. I had the pleasure to work with her in my classroom at Spruce School many years ago. She was wonderful with the kids and a beautiful person inside and out. Anytime she was at Spruce, she would always stop by my classroom to say hello. She even hopped by my classroom windows one time in a bunny costume! Her warm smile and kind heart will be missed by many! My condolences to her entire family.- Diane Olewnik
