“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jackie's passing, I just found out today. She was such a sweetie. The first time I met her was when she was selling her house. It was a snowy Sunday and she had a roast in the oven for her family. She made me feel instantly at home and we bought the house!! Two years later we had a block picnic and it was at my house and I invited Jackie to come, she walked in the kitchen and said "Honey, I'm home!" We didn't keep in touch, but she's someone I'll always remember.

“ Mrs. D was a second Mom to me and I smile just thinking about how lucky we were to have her and Mr. D in our lives. The Drechsel house was always the fun place for us kids to go and we always felt welcome. Mrs. D knew we were not angels (big understatement) but they accepted us and even loved us for who we were. When I would come to our house Mrs. D would say "here comes trouble" and would smile at me. She had a very special sense of humor and was also very smart and fair. I loved Mrs. D and I will miss her.
