“ OMG, I didnt know anything about this till December, you just never know when you see someone if it will be the last time. What a true dear close friend he was to me. We used to spend hours on the phone talking. His creativity was endless, his compassion for others, and his sense of the right thing to do was always an inspiration in these modern times. So many memories, and funny stories. I taught him to ski, and he got mad at me cause I took him on the Back Diamond trail, I was merely lost and took a wrong turn. Ill think of him often for many other reasons.

“ Jim and I grew up across the street from each other. He was my best friend, and best man at my wedding. We shared so many great times and amazing memories. Jim was fun-loving and charismatic, creative, and a true friend through the years. He is sorely missed. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ So sad to hear this news. You never knew when Jim would show up on his beach bike, jet ski or in his station wagon, always with a smile and ready for a great time. I will think of him every time I walk through our Jim Hutton doorway, which we named after him because he suggested it. I'm glad we reconnected this past year before covid, he was such a good person and we will miss him. Prayers to his family. Sally and Mike Tenhagen
