“ Janet was such a sweet woman. So kind caring and soft spoken. I worked with Janet from 1965 until 1976 and always enjoyed working with her. We met again when she and her family moved to North Tonawanda and joined St. Albert the Great parish. My condolences to her family and close friends. Janet may you rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord.

“ I always cried when Janet sang solo songs to the Blessed Mother at Mass
The musical tribute always reminded me of my Mom who loved the blessed Mother

“ Janet was one of the sweetest woman I have had the pleasure of caring for! She always had a smile for you even in the early morning lol. She never complained or had anything negative to say! She cared for everyone and she was a genuine soul! May she find the same happiness with the Lord in his beautiful paradise! Love you always Janet! Gabrielle
