“ I am so very sorry sweet Francis family. My first thought was I have no words. But then I did and want to share this memory. Working in the education field you come across many parents and I really treasured all I knew but I can honestly say Mr Francis was one of my favorite ones. I was privileged enough to have both Jason and Madison. He was quiet and a man of few words when he would drop off or pick up but you just knew he loved his kiddos. I don't know if this was Madison or Jason but I will never forget the time he came in for career day with all his welding gear. He was a huge hit with the class and I remember him being so engaged and really good with the kids. I thought to myself behind that quietness was pure kindness. My love to all.

“ You’re going to be missed so much. I can’t believe you’re gone. You are still loved more than anything in the world and I know you’re going to be watching over us all. I hope that you’re hunting and fishing with your Dad, and I’m glad you’re not in any more pain. You will be missed more than I can express. ❤️
