

Jason J. Stulba

July 10, 1980 - August 1, 2020

Jason J. Stulba, 40 of Amherst, NY formerly of North Tonawanda, Saturday (August 1, 2020). Jason was born in North Tonawanda on July 10, 1980 to Joseph and Kathy (Krzeminski) Stulba. Jason was predeceased by his maternal grandparents Stanley T. and Phyllis Krzeminski, his paternal grandparents Walter and Clara (Leslie) Stulba, his uncle Steven B. Krzeminski, and aunt Leslie Loibl, and cousin Douglas J. Vaillancourt. Jason was a pressman at Dual Printing in Cheektowaga. In his spare time he enjoyed boating, spending time on the river, lake and canal, spending time with family and friends by taking them out on the boat and having campfires. Jason was full of life and was always willing to help someone out, always thinking of others. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Jason is survived by his parents Joseph and Kathy Stulba, brother of Malinda (Jeremy) Keidel, Gina (Zachary Russel) and Gregory Stulba, uncle of Archer Keidel, his faithful canine Mister Wilson, also surviving are many aunts, uncles and cousins and friends.

Friends may call Sunday from 10:00 - 2:00 P.M. at the Wattengel Funeral Home, 533 Meadow Drive, North Tonawanda. “ People call us stubborn Stulbas because it’s true! This night jay insisted the only way he would go to the corn maze with us is if we snuck in the back! Oh boy was that the most fun night. He ended up telling this lady walking by that we snuck in, she goes “you do know I’m the owner right ?”. We all ended up laughing if off and she let us continue our night. Our smiles say it all. ❤️

I had Jason in middle school. He always had a smile and certainly knew how to make me laugh. I was so surprised and sad to see that he passed. My heart goes out to his family. Love and prayers..
