“ My favorite memories of my Aunt Joan were listening to her tell us about her childhood in the King family. She shared stories her brother, my father never told me. Like the psychic ability her big brother had when her other brother cut himself while playing at a friend's. Out of nowhere he knew and said that happened! I wanted to hear every last story she had of her life and that of her brothers'. Later years I have memories of feeling comforted seeing the love her daughter and granddaughter gave Aunt Joan, taking her to the park and always having special time for her.
