“ Oh, Johnny, the childhood memories we share. Lots of tears, lots of laughs, lots of “oh, crap, we better get out of here” & then we’d run like the dickens!! So many things I remember, but what I will forever remember is your smile & infectious laugh!! You were always, always one of the good ones. When you stepped on a scale, all your weight came from that great big heart that was within you!
Please give Uncle Freddie a great big huge for me. I know how close you & he always were. ...until we meet again. I wish you Eternal Peace!

“ My dearest brother, Johnny you were truly a gentle soul. There’s so many good times when we were younger that it’s too many to list, but some of my most favorite was when we fishing for salmon at Bonds lake or walleye at Honeoye lake with Mike and Lonnie. Also, I’ll never forget about some of the epic parties we had when mom was out of town, some of which made headlines they were so epic. Not to mention the birth of all your fantastic children. Those are just some of the great memories I have. Your sadly missed brother. And someday we will meet again.
