“ John and I went back a long way. I had just moved in the same building as John. At first glance, with his signature beard, he kind of scared me. Long story short. We became very close and stayed friends for 45 yrs. A little odd in his own way. Aren't we all. But he would have given me the shirt off his back. I was 20 yrs. old and no place to go. John took me in. There's not enough room for all I could say about him. Rest in peace brother. God bless.

“ My brother, John, as a young teen spent hours planning, shopping and wrapping Christmas presents that he had purchased with his hard earned money, for our whole extended family. He made up his own language, akin to pig Latin, to have conversations that were not understood by most people... He was bright, sensitive, kind and haunted by life into addiction and isolation. I love you, John. Be well.

I am saddened to hear of John's passing. As kids, we used to play chess for hours on his porch. He was a very bright kid. I would send him audio cassette tapes when he was in Vietnam. Over the years, we lost touch after he returned. He is at peace now.

John as the first person I met when I moved to Buffalo at the age of 14. We remained friends until I moved to Utah in 1976. We lost contact after that but for a while he was my best friend. I hope he found happiness in his life. DaveMalyn November 2024
