“ To Eric's family..
Eric was a great friend. Knowing each other through the Port, and Fire Dept., we became very good friends.
I will keep your family in my prayers. He will be missed greatly.

“ Lagesten Family - The Campen Family would like to give you and your family the deepest sympathy during this time of need. Eric was a great family man and public servant that represented himself as a true professional law enforcement officer for the North Carolina State Ports Authority Police Department. It was a pleasure working with Eric during my tenure as Chief of Police for the NC State Ports Authority. It was rewarding watching him advance from security to police officer during that time. I know that you are proud of him as we were for his accomplishments. Eric will be missed greatly. May God Bless and comfort you and your family. We wish you the best in the coming days.
Doug Campen - Retired Chief of Police, NC State Ports Authority

“ Mrs. Lagesten, I am the Director of Safety and Security at the NC State Ports Authority. Eric’s fellow officers had been following his progress against the cancer through phone conversations and his blog. We were all shocked at his rather sudden decline. We share a small portion of your sense of loss and are so very sorry. We will keep you and your family in our thoughts now and in the days to come. Please do not hesitate to let me know if there is anything we can do. With sincere condolences, Bill Bennett

“ Mrs. Lagesten, I am sorry to hear of your loss. I work in law enforcement in Morganton, NC and feel we are all connected in this line of work. I lost my husband to cancer August 17, 2009 and it helps to know he is not suffering anymore. I will keep you and the family in my thoughts and prayers.
In God's Love, Vickie Farish

“ The NC State Ports Authority is deeply saddened by the passing of Eric. Your entire family are in our thoughts & prayers. Eric was a true law enforcement professional & he positively touched many lives at the Ports. His story telling, humor and drive for continuous learning and growth are what I remember most and will miss!

God Bless you all,

*Richard B. Koch
Vice President
NC State Ports Authority*

“ Lagesten Family

I would like to give you my deepest sympathy during this time. Although I have not had the opportunity to work with Eric much, he was truly a valued member of the North Carolina State Ports Authority Police and Security Department and he will be greatly missed. I pray that God will comfort you in this time of sorrow.
