

John Thomas Perkowski

August 24, 1976 - November 17, 2014

John T. Perkowski - beloved son, nephew, brother, uncle, friend...passed peacefully after a long and difficult struggle with cancer. John's heart returned to Christ and our Father has welcomed him warmly home where there is no more pain, no more sadness... Only joy!

John touched so many lives with his humor, his wit, his deep and thoughtful writing and poetry. He didn't realize how loved he was. He is deeply missed by his father Joseph J. Perkowski (Patricia Ann, deceased), his brothers Joseph M., Michael J.(Carol), Stanley C.(Natalie), Frank P. (Tamara) and his sister Angelina M.(Thomas) Karvelis., nephew of C.AngelaBontempo, Rosemary (Pete) Harding and Victor (the late Phyllis) Bontempo.

He is adored and greatly loved by his nephews John Perkowski, Anthony

Young, Timothy Karvelis, AngeloPerkowski and his nieces, Patricia Ann Perkowski, Julia Maria Karvelis, and ElanorJayePerkowski. Many family and friends will always remember his quiet quirky presence, quick with a laugh or a sincere wish for the well-being of others.

John's family is so grateful for all the help and care provided by Buffalo area healthcare facilities, but especially Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Niagara Hospice who made John's last moments so beautiful and peaceful. The family welcomes you to support these worthy organizations in lieu of flowers.

In John's own words, from a poem, he wrote in 2012, he says this to us:

"I, for one, believe we come back,

That this life isn't over, no matter the track,

With fear, but eagerness I'll face the path,

When I die alone."

Friends please join the family Friday November 21 from 2-4p and 7-9p at Wattengel Funeral Home, 533 Meadow Drive, North Tonawanda, NY.

Mass of Christian Burial will be offered Saturday 9:30 am from Our Lady of Czestochowa Church, 626 Oliver St., North Tonawanda, NY

“ I have know you for many many years and sorry that I have lost touch with you. You have always had that the ability to make people laugh and smile when they were down. You always had the ability to make me laugh. I wanted to thank you for being my friend and sorry for losing touch with you over the years. St. Peter will open his gates with open arms and welcome you with a great smile and grin. I don't know what you were suffering from but you don't have to anymore. You are in peace now my friend with our Heavenly Father. God Bless

“ I only knew John for a short time, but he was a good person and a good friend.

Even as things got worse and he knew he wasn't coming home, the first concern he expressed to me was that he might be letting down the group he was GMing for. Of course, we all understood, but he was a Gamer to the end.

I'll miss him.
