“ I would love to share a few little memories of my neighbor Judith parish We are all truly going to miss her we loved her so dearly. She was so funny very kind and she had a big heart. She loved her children very much and her grandkids and she truly loved her cat jeffrey. She is by far the most interesting person I have met in a very long time and the most loving person that I've known very easy to talk to and get along with And she was very funny you will truly be missed . may you rest in peace we all love you., ❤️💕🙏 Love the Terry Jenneve And family friends ❤️❤️😭

“ I look back with many smiles at our lively conversations at the salon! Getting to know Bill and Dan in June's later years, and watching their interactions was the highlight of my Friday afternoons. She was greatly missed when she could no longer come into the salon. I know she is sitting happily with your dad, and Jeffrey on her lap! Miss you, June.
