“ Our deepest sympathy. Keith spent so much time at our house as a teenager. He was kind, funny and a great friend to our son, who also left us to soon. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Keith was such a kind soul. He was like part of the family back when he dated my sister (G) starting his senior year. Being the brother-like guy he was, he attempted to teach me how to drive a standard transmission. He had the patience of a saint that day! Unfortunately, the last time our paths crossed was roughly 19 years ago when he caught back up with G. He was so excited to talk about becoming a tattoo artist and proud of his work. His kindheartedness was always present and I will always cherish the memories I have of him. My heart breaks for his family. Sending them much love, thoughts, and prayers.
