“ I only knew Joe during my former employment with Ryder. As his love ones know Joe was a truck driver. Joe put in very long hours and endless weeks of work. We all do. Us truck drivers. Truthfully, management and dispatchers never consider the tolls it takes on our life. They just figured they pay us and we have to work ourself to death. Driving a truck for 70 hours a week legally and all the other time that we don't get paid for. Mostly, we have cold meals and awful places to relieve ourself and both management and dispatchers were up our asses all time wanting to know everything. I just want his love ones know that what Joe did for a living as truck driver was for the purpose to give you so much at a cost that many can't really see what it takes.
Joe will be missed by me. - Mike Atanasio

“ My dear brother Keo, I am having such a hard time accepting that we will not be having a reunion in New York with you, that I can't pick up the phone and just call you! I loved talking with you, you were always so laid back and easy to talk with about anything.

I can't believe that I am not going to be able to see you one last time. It has taken all the strength I have to not jump on a plane today! You know me, still very impulsive when it comes to my emotions! Just couldn't take a chance with this virus and all! Too many people depending on me here!

I remember when I was staying with you in Pahoia and wanted to go to Hilo but didn't have enough gas in my car- so you cyphened gas from your car and put it in mine! That was really nice of you! I was so impressed, I think you used your hose! Lol

Remember when I was flying into Maui, and you were heading to Buffalo and we bumped into one another at the airport in Honolulu! Oh my gosh, I said "Where are you going?" And you said "Back to Buffalo" ...little did I know that day would be the last time we would live in the same state for decades.

I am so proud of the man you became, a steady rock to your family and loved by all! We sure went through allot together in our younger days! Staying up late waiting for Dad to come home so that we could talk to him. 😊

So grateful that we had that two hour conversation last month. Thank you for calling Makoa, he was so excited to tell me that you called!

Rest in Love, my dear brother! I shall hold onto our fondest memories forevermore. I know you are still here in spirit, and you will always have a special place in my heart. Much Love and Aloha till we see one another again, your sister, Maelani

“ Aloha my brother. I'm sitting here and my heart starts missing a beat that your with mom and dad and John. The last time we talked your driving back to buffalo and me driving to Kona for work and all I can think was that we had plans to meet this summer or after covid was over and go on a vacation together. I been away from Buffalo for over forty years and was looking forward to meeting your kids and grandkids. Thanks for aways taken my phone call I'll miss us talks about are old days working together or growing up in the same bedroom or the music that you told me to purchase so you can record it on your reel to reel. All I have is a great memory of the days with you my older brother and I will see you again. Love Kimo

“ I know I had taken me some time to write something. But how do I express how much you meant to me. The first time I wet you at work you smile was so contagious. We became friends at work which soon turned to friends out of work. You guys became part of my family. I will always cherish the memories of our time together. The parties, the long talks, the laughs. How can I say goodbye my friend. I can't , I just can't. This is not goodbye Joe!! We will see each other again. You were such an amazing friend to everyone. Until we meet again keep the party going. I Love you my brother, my friend my buddy my pal.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing D'Arcy for about 5 years or 6 years. I always called him D'Arcy sometime i called him Joe. He could make a room of guy's laugh. He was always smiling. I will miss the times we talked about work together and talked about his family and mine and what's going with family members. I had times about (6) that i had to go rescue him from Canada so he could get home to his family. I wish i could of been there to rescue him one last time. Rest in peace bro. I will for sure miss you bro. Till we meet again.

“ I wish I could go back to when I met him in the mid 90's. When you find the rare camaraderie that we had, it can totally alter the workplace from a negative to a positive. I wish I could go back to when we took our young families to the show together, or when we'd ride our motorcycles together. his favorite music and mine were the same. But more than anything, I just wish I could go back to Monday to express to my brother from another mother how much I valued his friendship, loyalty and love. I would tell Tina, but somehow she always knew....

“ I had the extreme pleasure and honor to work with Joe. He always had a smile on his face. He had such a zest for the things he was passionate about. His knowledge of his work was top notch. And his quick wit was beyond compare. Always made me laugh and always taught me something. My heart goes out to all his family and loved ones. He will be missed more then words can ever say

“ Words will never describe the pain I feel. Nothing will ever replace the love you gave. The memories and love you gave have continued to flood my soul, You were my world, my best friend, my rock, my everything. Your amazing personality, big heart and Your knowledge of life was beyond comprehension and I am so grateful you will forever be apart of me and your grandchildren. We worshiped the ground you walked on and I will continue to make you proud. The hardest working most loving soul to have ever walked this planet. The last text you sent me was an angel emoji and now you are my angel. I miss you and love you more than anyone could ever understand. You gave us something that could never be replaced, I see you in everything I do, everything I see, everything you taught me..I will cherish every second I had with you because it will never be enough. I will never understand any of the reasons why god had to call you home but all I know is i hope he had a plan like you always did. You fought so hard to give us the best life possible and you fought so hard to stay here with us as long as you did. They say There is a reason for everything and one day I hope it makes sense. You have touched so many lives with your infectious smile, out going loving personality and your humor in everything, there will NEVER be another you. I love you so much daddy and now I need you to please continue to watch over all of us how you always have. I pray and talk to you everyday and will until I see you again. Rest in paradise now -It will never be goodbye, a hui hou kakou my angel 😇 please keep me strong and stay at my back as you always have because I need you now more than ever. ❤️

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mr. D'Arcy for several years, and I don't think I ever heard anyone speak ill of him. He was never too busy for a kind word or a helping hand. Truly someone who can't be replaced. My heart goes out to his family and friends.

Mike Thomas - February 10, 2021 at 12:32 PM

“ I worked alongside Mr. D'arcy for 5 years. Any time him and I saw each other I was met with the strongest and most heart felt handshake. His laid back and general overall jovial attitude could make a aggravating day into a decent one. I saw him moments before he left this world. We passed each other in our trucks greeting each other with a smile and a wave, not knowing that would be the last time I would see him. If I myself, just a co-worker, could see how wonderful of a gentleman he was, my heart goes out to the family and true friends who've truly lost something special. He will never be forgotten!
